

CALL FOR ARTISTS, MEDIA CREATORS, FILM MAKERS!

ISTANBUL DIGITAL Culture and Art Foundation, in collaboration with its Greek partner KEDE – Center for Research and Action on Peace, and with its Greek and Turkish associate partners, is now calling for artists, media creators, and film makers from Turkey and Greece to participate in the North Aegean Narratives Project, a collaborative production of short creative documentaries on the main theme of "Re-thinking Closeness and Apartness, Re-connecting with the Other Side".

We are looking for 16 emerging media-makers who will partake in a development workshop, and produce their own short documentaries over a period of three months, contemplating different narratives such as culture, tradition, religion, gender and identity. We particularly encourage those media creators who reside or attend schools in the North Aegean region of Turkey or the Lesvos and other islands in the North Aegean region of Greece to participate in the project; however, artists from other regions of both countries are also welcome to apply.

The application DEADLINE is 12 February 2012.

To learn more about the North Aegean Narratives project, please visit <http://NorthAegeanNarratives.org/>. You can view the application guidelines, and enter your application online at <http://NorthAegeanNarratives.org/apply/>.

North Aegean Narratives Project is financed under the Civil Society Facility-EU-Turkey Intercultural Dialogue: Culture & Arts programme and is co-funded by the European Union and the Government of Republic of Turkey.

Follow North Aegean Narratives on Facebook!

İSTANBUL DIGITAL

Culture and Arts Foundation

Project Partner:

Associate Partners:

Facilitators:

The content of this document is the sole responsibility of Istanbul Digital Culture and Art Foundation and can under no circumstances be regarded as reflecting the official opinion or the position of the European Union.

